CRITERIA FOR THE GUIDANCE OF SELECTION COMMITTEES, SPONSORS AND APPLICANTS

SELECTION

- a) The Selection Committee for membership comprises of the Joint Club Management Committee in consultation with both the Men's & Ladies Clubs.
- b) Entry fees and subscription rates are set by the Management Committee.

SPONSORS

- a) The Proposer and Secunder must know the applicant and must themselves have been members of the Club for at least three years.
- b) The Proposer and Secunder should invite their nominee to play with them at Douglas Golf Club prior to their letter of support for the applicant and should state this in the letter.
- c) The Proposer and Secunder must also understand that the first year of membership is probationary and if the applicant, during this period proves to be unsatisfactory, the Club reserves the right to terminate the membership.
- d) Any member, probationary or otherwise, either expelled or otherwise, ceasing to be a member of the Club, shall not be entitled to have any part of their annual subscription returned.

APPLICANTS

- 1. Adult applicants need a Proposer and a Secunder to sign an application form. Each signatory shall write a letter to the Club supporting the applicant. The Proposer may need to attend a selection interview with their nominee when advised of such a meeting.
- 2. Adult applicants are required to write a letter of introduction to the Club and submit it with the signed application form and supporting letters from the Proposer and Secunder, to the Club when applying for Membership.
- 3. Juvenile applicants aged between 10 and 18 and Junior applicants aged between 19 and 25 also need a Proposer and a Seconder who should write to the Club supporting the applicant.

If required, the parent/guardian and Proposer should accompany the juvenile at the selection interview and ideally he/she should also be recommended by the Junior Officer or Club Professional.

4. If accepted into any category of membership, by signing the application form the applicant agrees to be bound by all the club rules and by-laws for the time being in force.
5. The first year's membership of the Club is probationary.
6. If an elected candidate does not pay the entrance fee and the first subscription within one month from the date when notification of such election has been posted to them (or within such extended times as the Committee may at its discretion allow in a particular case), the Committee may annul their election.
